An Insider's Experience of the Holiday Season in India

Day by Day Itinerary – 11 Nights

Tour begins in New Delhi on Monday 24th December 2012

Tour Ends in New Delhi on Friday 4th January 2013

On a Journey with Tara, the Possibilities are Endless & the Discoveries Magical!

Specialized – Customized – Personalized Journeys to India & Beyond

Pre-tour day in Delhi – Sunday, 23rd Dec 2012– When you arrive in New Delhi, we will gladly provide a private transfer from IGI airport to your hotel. (nominal charge)

Day/s at leisure to recover from jet lag or to explore the several “Insiders’ Experience” with Tara – E.g. Have tea/meal with a local multi-generational family living together in their ancestral home. Explore the many museums of Delhi; attend Mass at a local Catholic or Protestant Church: or a worship ceremony at a temple, gurudwara or monastery; shop for beautiful cottons and silks and get your clothes custom tailored by Tara’s Tailor Master for over 25 years. Or simply relax at an Ayurvedic Spa or dine at the several gourmet restaurants of Delhi. Whether you want to eat where the locals eat or want fine dining with gourmet cuisine, you have several choices – including delicious vegetarian street food (Chaat) of Northern India, authentic South Indian meal or perhaps you want to chat with students over dinner in their college dining room.

Meals: Breakfast    Hotel: Guest House or The Lalit

Day 1 New Delhi – Monday 24th December 2012:

Our representative awaits your group arrival at IGI airport to escort you to your hotel in the city center. After breakfast we discover New Delhi with its war memorial, India Gate, the impressive palatial sized buildings of Rajpath and President’s House, designed and built by the British in the 1920’s. Explore the ruins of Qutab Minar, a world heritage site, an excellent example of Afghan architecture. Soak in the peace and tranquility of the Lotus temple (Bahai temple) which signifies purity and equality of all religions. At the Akshardham Temple we enjoy a leisurely walk through the grounds with its musical fountains and lights show.

The evening is at leisure to browse through the markets filled with Holiday cheer and sales, Indian style. Perhaps explore “Dilli Haat” a beautiful food and crafts bazaar in South Delhi which is like a treasure house of Indian culture, handicrafts and ethnic cuisine. Alternatively, browse the shops of Janpath, Palika Bazaar, the State Cottage Emporiums in Connaught Place or the local neighborhood bazaars for your last minute souvenirs and shopping. Ask Tara about fun dining experiences.

If you’re interested in attending midnight Mass, please make arrangements with Tara well in advance so perhaps you can accompany her friends for a Mass in English.

Meals: Breakfast    Hotel: Guest House or The Lalit

Day 2 New Delhi – Tuesday 25th December 2012

This morning we head out to explore the historical monuments of Old Delhi. We visit, Red Fort, a beautiful red sandstone monument built in 1648. We take a rickshaw ride through the narrow alleys of Chandni Chowk a colorful and bustling market of Old Delhi. We visit Jama Masjid, the largest mosque in India and stop at Raj Ghat, the memorial to Mahatma Gandhi, to pay our respects to the Father of the Nation.

Tonight, you are invited to a typical Punjabi meal at Tara's home with her family and childhood friends. Alternatively, we may be guests at a Christmas Dinner (Tara's friend).

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner Hotel: Guest House or The Lalit

Day 3 Delhi – Jaipur - Wednesday 26th December 2012 (265 kms – 5 hours)

After a leisurely breakfast we leave for Jaipur, the fabled "pink city" of the desert named after Jai Singh, the former Maharaja of Jaipur. The palaces and forts of the yesteryears, which were witnesses to the royal processions and splendors are now living monuments. In Jaipur, experience traditional Rajasthani hospitality during your stay at your charming Haveli in a residential neighborhood owned by the family over a century.

Enjoy a relaxed evening at your hotel. Perhaps visit a gem and jewelry factory followed by shopping in the bazaars for colorful Jaipuri fabrics, artwork, handicrafts, jewelry and gemstones. Or accompany Tara to enjoy dinner with her family & friends.

Meals: Breakfast Hotel: A choice of two Havelis (Value or First Class)

Day 4 Jaipur – Thursday 27th December 2012

A not-to-be-missed opportunity is a visit to the massive Amber Fort, one of the most splendid examples of Rajasthani architecture. Relive the days of the Maharajas and ride a fantastically caparisoned elephant to reach the top of Amber palace. Inside the Fort we will see the Hall of Victory or Jag Mandir and the famed Sheesh Mahal, a room with walls and ceiling completely embedded with glittering mirrors specially imported from Belgium at the time.

Specialized – Customized – Personalized Journeys to India & Beyond

This afternoon, we visit the City Palace and the Palace Museum to see its fabulous display of miniature paintings and traditional Rajasthani royal costumes. We stop at Hawa Mahal as a backdrop for a brief photo opportunity. A stunning monument of 5 stories with 365 windows, it is also known as the Palace of Winds. Its façade is encrusted with delicate screens and carved balconies from which the royal ladies, confined to their quarters, could sneak views of the outside world. We visit Jantar Mantar, Jai Singh's observatory, where time has been accurately measured since the 17th century.

The evening is at leisure to relax at your hotel or shop in the bazaars for colorful Jaipuri fabrics, artwork, handicrafts, jewelry and gemstones.. Alternatively, enjoy an ayurvedic spa treatments or dinner shows at the many hotels of Jaipur.

Meals: Breakfast    Hotel: A choice of two Havelis (Value or First Class)

Day 5 Jaipur to Ranthambhore – Friday 28th December 2012 (170 kms –4 hours)

This morning, we continue our journey to Ranthambhore National Park, a wildlife enthusiast and photographer's dream with its numerous species of animals, birds and reptiles. With an area of 400 sq. km encompassing rocky hillcrests which descend to open valleys, dotted with water pools and fruit trees, this park gets its name from the thousand year old fortress, which looms above the forest. Well known for the diurnal activity of tigers, Ranthambhore is an unusual area where a natural present meets a historical past. Gazelles, Sambar, Cheetal, Chinkara, Nilgai, Langoor, wild bull, the elusive leopard and a few tigers are regularly sighted.

This afternoon, perhaps spot a tiger or two on your jeep safari. The evening is at leisure to relax by the pool, enjoy the resort amenities and cultural evening over dinner. Perhaps take a short drive to browse the local village arts and craft factories and shops.

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner                      Hotel: Dev Vilas

Day 6 Ranthambhore to Agra – Saturday 29th December (250 kms – 6 hours)

Enjoy a second game drive by jeep in the early morning before leaving for Agra in the late morning. Enroute we will visit Fatehpur Sikri – a perfectly preserved red sandstone “ghost town” which was the estranged capital of Mughal Emperor Akbar, built in 1569 and deserted when its water supply failed.

Specialized – Customized – Personalized Journeys to India & Beyond

This evening, with suggestions from Tara, perhaps enjoy a relaxed dinner at a restaurant of your choice or at your hotel. Later perhaps view the Taj Mahal under the light of the full moon – additional charges apply.

Meals: Breakfast and Dinner

Hotel: Utkarsh Vilas or Taj Gateway with Taj view rooms

Day 7 Agra – Sunday 30th December

Wake up early to fall under the spell of the spectacular Taj Mahal, at sunrise. Bathed in the glowing light of dawn we will bask in the glory of this world famous mausoleum with its perfect architecture, as its white marble reflects the rays of the rising sun.

After breakfast we continue exploring this great Mughal city in the late morning. We visit the Agra Fort, a UNESCO World Heritage Site situated on the banks of river Yamuna. Inside this massive red sandstone Fort, we witness the medieval lifestyles of 16th and 17th century Mughal emperors. We also visit Itmad-ud-Daula's Tomb, a Mughal mausoleum often called Baby Taj, regarded as a draft of the Taj Mahal. Built by Nūr Jahān, for her father Mirzā Ghiyās Beg, on the left bank of the Yamuna river, the walls are of white marble encrusted with semi-precious stone decorations - cornelian, jasper, lapis lazuli, onyx, and topaz. Time permitting we will enjoy a rickshaw ride through the city which reveals the hustle bustle of Agra's old markets.

The evening is at leisure to perhaps enjoy a relaxed dinner with cultural performance at a local restaurant of your choice. Or treat yourself to a Spa, with therapies designed to rejuvenate body and soul accompanied by the royal service offered at your small family run hotel that makes your stay simply exclusive and unforgettable.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 8 Agra – Khajuraho Monday 31st December 2012 ( 172 kms - 2 ½ hours by train and 4 hours drive)

To enjoy and make the most of this very long, overland, travel day, you'll need to approach it with curiosity, an adventurous spirit, and a healthy sense of humor. We leave early this morning to board our train the Shatabdi Express bound for Jhansi where our coach meets us to take us on our onward journey to Khajuraho. Enroute we visit Orchha, the deserted royal citadel and one of India's most fabulous Mughal heritage sites. Founded in 1531, Orchha, was the capital of the Bundela kings until 1738. Today the weathered temples, palaces, and cenotaphs are the royal quarters of emerald parakeets and black-faced langurs and traditional whitewashed, flat-roofed structures house the laid-back villagers. See the palace complex, beautiful temples and graceful chhatris (cenotaphs) commemorating the Orchha rulers, built upstream along the riverbank.

This evening we arrive in Khajuraho, a fascinating village with a quaint rural ambience and a rich cultural heritage. The fascinating temples of Khajuraho, their taboo-breaking erotic sculptures are India's unique gift of love to the world. They represent the expression of a highly matured civilization with an outstanding synthesis of advanced architecture and refined sculpture. This evening we attend the sound-and-light show which provides a fascinating history of Khajuraho.

Tonight, enjoy a New Year's Eve celebration with Gala dinner & Indian style as we welcome 2013!

Meals: Breakfast and Dinner      Hotel: Radisson Khajuraho

Day 9 Khajuraho – Tuesday 1st January 2013

Our visit to the temples begins with the Western Group when they open at sunrise, not only for the light's quality, but to avoid the busloads of tourists who will arrive later. We take our time admiring the beautifully rendered friezes of gods and nymphs that decorate the temples. Later we visit the Eastern group of temples which include Parasvanath Temple, which is the only Jain Temple surviving at Khajuraho and has excellent sculptures on the outer walls of the Sanctum and The Javeri Temple dedicated to Vishnu.

Meals: Breakfast      Hotel: Radisson Khajuraho

Day 10 Khajuraho – Varanasi Wednesday 2nd January 2013 (flight)

After an early breakfast we leave for the airport to board our flight to Varanasi, one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world. A holy city for Buddhists and Jains, and the holiest place in the world in Hinduism the mornings begin with prayers at the ghats, a holy dip and the tinkling of temple bells. It bustles with people whose lives are concentrated on being good Hindus. Social events mean religious festivals. This is a city soaked in devotion.

This afternoon our city tour includes Bharat Mata Temple with a big relief map of India in marble, the Durga Temple, the Tulsi Manas Mandir, Banaras Hindu University known for its Art Gallery and the Mosque of Mughal Emperor Aurangzeb. We end the evening at the Dashwamedha Ghat of the river Ganges to watch the Ganga Fire Arti. For 45 minutes, young Brahmin priests perform age-old prayer rituals with conch shells and burning braziers, accompanied by drummers, while pilgrims light candles to set adrift on the river accompanied with flowers.

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner      Hotel: Radisson Varanasi or Gateway Taj Ganges

Day 11 Varanasi – Thursday 3rd January 2013

We greet this day with an early morning boat ride on the holy river Ganges to see the Bathing ghats and Cremation site, one of the most extraordinary experiences of your visit to India. For the devout Hindu, Varanasi, is the holiest pilgrimage center and must be visited at least once in a lifetime to wash away ones sins. We return to our hotel for a leisurely breakfast.

In the late morning, we visit the fascinating city of nearby Sarnath, as holy to Buddhists as Varanasi is to Hindus. Sarnath, filled with Buddhist monuments is where Lord Buddha gave his first sermon. It was a renowned school of learning from 6th century B.C. to 12th century A.D. Here we visit the ruins, the stupa, the Buddhist temple and the Museum which houses an excellent collection of Buddhist art and sculpture. (Museum closed on Fridays).

Our evening is at leisure to enjoy the markets of Varanasi known for its designer Banarasi silks, its bangles and carpets. Perhaps accompany Tara for shopping or for dinner with childhood friends who have lived in Varanasi for decades.

Meals: Breakfast      Hotel: Radisson Varanasi or Gateway Taj Ganges

Day 12 Varanasi – New Delhi – Friday 4th January 2013 (flight)

After a leisurely breakfast we drive to the airport for our late morning flight back to Delhi. For those departing today, a transfer to IGI airport for your onward journey is included. If you are spending a few more days in Delhi, Please arrange your “insider experiences” with Tara at the time of reservations.

Meals: Breakfast

End of Journey
